

State of Georgia, (). Conviction of Murder.
Vs. (). In Fulton Superior Court.
Leo M. Frank. (). Motion for New Trial.
 :-----:

And now comes the defendant in the above stated case and moves the court for a new trial upon the grounds following, to-wit:

1. The verdict is contrary to the evidence.
2. The verdict is contrary to the law.
3. The verdict is against the weight of the evidence.
4. The court, over the objection of the defendant, heard evidence of other transactions and tending to establish other crimes and offenses, wholly separate and distinct from the charge in the Bill of Indictment, to the injury and prejudice of the defendant.

Wherefore, for these and other good grounds to be urged upon the hearing, the defendant, Leo M. Frank, moves that said verdict be set aside and a new trial granted.

Reuben R. Arnold,
L. Z. Rosser,
Herbert J. Hass.
Atty's. for Leo M. Frank, Movant.

:-----:

Read and considered. Let the foregoing motion for new trial be filed and let a copy thereof be served upon the Solicitor General.

It is ordered that the State show cause before me on the 4th day of October 1913, at my Chambers Throver Building Atlanta, Ga. why the verdict should not be set aside and a new trial granted. In the meantime, and until after this motion may be heard, it is ordered that the movant have the right to ~~prepare and~~ approved and filed a proper brief of the evidence in said case; and that should said motion be postponed, that such right to prepare and have approved and file such brief of the evidence shall exist and remain in the movant until such time as the motion may be finally heard.

In the meantime let the execution of the court's sentence be suspended. It is further ordered that until such time as this motion may be heard and decided, that the movant have full leave to amend this motion for new trial.

This 26th day of August, 1913.
