Keefe Fights Stepson in Club

KEEFE DOWN IN POLICE COURT

Keefe, Mauled by Son, Will Fight Wife's Charge of Assault.

Mauled and pummeled by his young stepson, then arrested at the instance of his wife on the charge of disorderly conduct to which he will answer Saturday afternoon, David H. Keefe, prominent Atlanta broker, is convinced that the role of hero in a noisy matrimonial drama is not at all what is craved up to him.

The latest chapter in Mr. Keefe's highly interesting marital career was begun Friday evening when he went to the Piedmont Driving Club in company with Deputy Sheriff Fleming Miller, to get possession of a $4,000 machine on bail from Mr. Keefe's stepson, Jack Meroy, who had the machine, and when he saw Keefe approaching him the official immediately sallied forth to do battle. There were a few words, spectators came and they were flying.

Alleged to Have Used Force.

What Deputy Miller was aware of was going on Keefe and his stepson. Keefe, Young Meroy is said to have struck Keefe several times and to have added to this injury by hitting him.

It is contained in his statement to the press that the State has a lack of evidence of which his defense is in entire ignorance and of which they will remain in ignorance until it is presented when Frank is placed on trial for his life.

It was contended that the case was so recent that he would not be warranted in making any definite statement for publication in reference to the evidence in the possession of the prosecution.

His attention was called to the fact that while in all of the published statements of Conley the negro denied seeing Mary Phagan go into the factory, no one connected with the prosecution could now be induced to say that he still stuck to his particular and puzzling version of his story. Mr. Hooper, however, would make no comment on the circumstance.

It can not tell what they were. They will be revealed when the trial is in actual progress. Mr. Dorsey has guarded his evidence carefully and has refrained from trying his case in the papers. It is not presumptuous for me to step in and give this evidence away in this case, for the defense it would be at least most unwise.

The negro appeared to be telling a straightforward story. He said nothing that caused me to alter my theory of the killing in the least. So far as I know, there has been no case in which the attack was made. I questioned Conley only occasionally, preferring to let him go ahead on his own case.

Admissions to Prosecutor's Aide Strengthens Rumor That He Saw Girl Just Before Crime

Frank A. Hooper, associated with Solicitor Dorsey in the prosecution of Leo M. Frank on the charge of strangled Mary Phagan, admitted Saturday that Jim Conley, negro sweeper at the National Pencil Factory, made important admissions to the story of his part in the murder mystery and had told of circumstances on the day of the crime which he had revealed in none of his previous statements.

A persistent report that Conley had made the startling admission that he had seen Mary Phagan enter the factory on the day she was slain arose at the time the negro was questioned more than an hour by Solicitor Dorsey early in the week, and this rumor was heightened after Attorney Hooper's interview with the negro Friday.

In all of his statements to the detective Conley denied he saw the girl at all on the day of the crime until he was horrified by the sight of her dead body lying in the rear of the second floor where he was directed by Leo Frank, Solicitor Dorsey is being questioned more than an hour by Solicitor Dorsey early in the week, and this rumor was heightened after Attorney Hooper's interview with the negro Friday.

Mr. Hooper refused either to admit or deny this report, declaring that his connection with the case was so recent that he would not be warranted in making any definite statement for publication in reference to the evidence in the possession of the prosecution.
