

DEFENSE PLANS TO TEAR DOWN CONLEY TALE

Expect to Prove Frank Innocent by Discrediting Negro's Story of Phagan Crime.

Warned that the state is being practically all of its expectations of sending Leo M. Frank to the gallows on the dramatic story told by Jim Conley, the defense this week is completing the collection of a strong line of evidence with which it is planned utterly to discredit the negro's statements and his testimony in court.

Conley again has insisted on confronting Frank. He says he is certain if he can meet the faculty superintendent face to face he can make him "tell the whole story." The negro has told the detectives he not only is willing, but is eager to repeat in the presence of Frank the story of the disposal of Mary Phagan's body just as he has related it a dozen times since he first made the sensational acknowledgment that he had a part in the crime.

It is regarded as most unlikely that the two will be brought together. Luther Z. Rosser, attorney for Frank, has refused to make any definite statement of his attitude for the matter, but it is known he looks with suspicion on every word and every statement by which Conley seeks to edify himself with the case after his removal from the state prison. He has refused to make any definite statement of his attitude for the matter, but it is known he looks with suspicion on every word and every statement by which Conley seeks to edify himself with the case after his removal from the state prison.

At this time, it is the intention of the defense to begin with the statements by which Conley seeks to edify himself with the case after his removal from the state prison. He has refused to make any definite statement of his attitude for the matter, but it is known he looks with suspicion on every word and every statement by which Conley seeks to edify himself with the case after his removal from the state prison.

YOUNG COUPLE ELOPE TO DECATUR TO WED

Popular Atlanta girl surprises friends by stealing away to marry.

It is regarded as most unlikely that the two will be brought together. Another attorney for Frank has refused to make any definite statement of his attitude in the matter, but it is known he looks with suspicion on every word and every act of the negro. He has not the impression that he is not unwilling for his client to face the negro, but that he regards the court room as the proper place for the meeting and the usual trial of Frank as the accused.

At this time, it is the intention of the defense to begin with the statements by which Conley conducted himself with the case after he had remained silent for two weeks following his arrest. Frank's lawyers will attack the specific details of the negro's affidavit, one by one, and seek to show that the light which is being thrown upon the case is so blinding that they are utterly absurd and ridiculous.

Particular emphasis will be placed on the fact that the negro has not only admitted that he had no knowledge of the crime, but that he had no knowledge of the position that he had occupied at the time of the crime. It is also pointed out that the negro's affidavit, one by one, and seek to show that the light which is being thrown upon the case is so blinding that they are utterly absurd and ridiculous.

Bellevue Conley, who is the brother of the man who is charged with the murder of Leo M. Frank, is expected to be a witness in the defense. He is expected to be a witness in the defense. He is expected to be a witness in the defense.

DEFENSE PLANS TO TEAR DOWN CONLEY TALE

Expect to Prove Frank Innocent by Discrediting Negro's Story of Phagan Crime.

Warned that the State is basing practically all of its expectations of sending Leo M. Frank to the gallows on the dramatic story told by Jim Conley, the defense this week is completing the collection of a strong line of evidence with which it is planned utterly to discredit the negro's statements and his testimony in court.

Conley again has insisted on continuing Frank. He says he is certain if he can meet the factory superintendent face to face he can make him "tell the whole story." The negro has told the detectives he not only is willing, but is eager to repeat in the presence of Frank the story of the disposal of Mary Phagan's body just as he has related it a dozen times since he first made the sensational acknowledgment that he had a part in the crime.

It is regarded as most unlikely that the two will be brought together. Luther S. Rosser, attorney for Frank, has refused to make any definite statement of his attitude in the matter, but it is known he looks with suspicion on every word and every act of the negro. He has given the impression that he is not unwilling for his client to face the negro, but that he regards the court room as the proper place for the meeting and the proper trial of Frank as the proper time. For this reason, the dramatic moment when accuser and accused confront each other in all probability will be saved for the time when the legal battle is in progress for life.

Attack Planned on Negro. At this time, it is the intention of the defense to begin with the first statements by which Conley offered himself with the case after he had been arrested. Frank's lawyers will make the separate details of the negro's affidavits, only by the way to show that in the light of what they are they are utterly ridiculous.

Particular emphasis will be laid on the fact that the negro, Conley, is a man of no education, that he has told of his knowledge of the crime, that he has told of his knowledge of the fact that he had been arrested for the crime, that he has told of his knowledge of the fact that he had been arrested for the crime, that he has told of his knowledge of the fact that he had been arrested for the crime.

Believes Conley Won't Betray. Bollett's Dorsey and Ed McElroy in the prosecution will make a confession on the witness stand. Mr. Dorsey said this morning that he believed the negro would make an excellent witness probably the most valuable one the State would break down under the fire of questions from Alexander Rosser and Reuben Arnold, both of whom have had reputation for making "cross-examination" to which they can subject a person in the witness chair.

ATLANTA NEW YORK PARIS

We Propose to Be the Architect To-morrow of One Hundred and Twenty-Five Women's Good Fortunes. $10.00 and $12.50 Linen Dresses $4.45

But mind you, one hundred and twenty-five in all. A maker who has favored us with some of the finest values we have lately offered has outdone himself!

Here are $10.00 and $12.50 linen dresses at $4.45. And just a word about the linen.

It is a crackling, fine quality of French linen, not a thread awry, not a rough spot, as smoothly and evenly woven as a piece of lawn—reckon the cost of the linen in these dresses. $4.45 is reached before a stitch is taken, before a pattern is laid on the linen.

You may choose from tan, leather, two shades of Copenhagen, pink, lavender and white. Those in colors have white piping and buttons. The white ones may be all white or white piped in colors. A flat collar of sheer batiste edged with Valenciennes lace, or a collar of self-material overlaid with heavy lace.

They are wonderful values! Charming styles!

29c For $1.00 Waists. 25c for a $1.00 waist. And it may be as good as to select but one! one of several styles, a soft and light and dainty lingerie waist with Dutch or high neck trimmed with laces and embroideries, a tailored skirt of linen or of French lawn, plain but for the tucks. But who will want just one?

79c For $2.50 to $3.50 Waists. Gathered at 79c are a number of $2.25 to $3.50 waists that have become a bit fringed from handling. It is a happy collection. They are soft values and lingerie clothes showing pretty bits of elmy and shadow lace and embroideries, and they are tailored linen waists, Dutch and high neck, half and full length sleeves.

DEFENSE PLANS TO TEAR DOWN CONLEY TALE

Expect to Prove Frank Innocent by Discrediting Negro's Story of Phagan Crime.

Warned that the State is basing practically all of its expectations of securing Leo M. Frank to the gallows on the dramatic story told by Jim Conley, the defense this week is completing the collection of a strong line of evidence with which it is planned to discredit the negro's statements and his testimony in court.

Conley again has insisted on confronting Frank. He says he is certain he can meet the factory superintendent face to face he can make him "tell the whole story". The negro has told the detectives he not only is willing, but is eager to repeat in the presence of Frank the story of the disposal of Mary Phagan's body just as he has related it a dozen times since he first made the sensational acknowledgment that he had a part in the crime.

It is regarded as most unlikely that the two will be brought together. Luther E. Hooper, attorney for Frank, has refused to make any definite statement of his attitude in the matter, but it is known he looks with suspicion on every word and every act of the negro. He has given the impression that he is not unwilling to see Frank face the negro, but that he regards the court room as the proper place for the meeting and the usual trial of Frank as the proper time. For this reason, the dramatic moment when Conley and Frank confront each other in all probability will be saved for the time when legal battle is in progress for Frank's life.

Attack Planned on Negro. At this time it is the intention of the defense to begin its attack on the statements by which Conley has endeavored to make the case against Frank remain intact for two weeks, ending his arrest. Frank's lawyers will take the appropriate details of Conley's affidavits one by one and endeavor to show that the statements and bills they are utterly untrue.

Particular emphasis will be placed on the fact that the negro has deliberately many times in the past made himself a laughing stock by making statements which he has never intended to carry out. This defense strategy has made two affidavits which Conley made in the State after he had been arrested, which he has admitted to be untrue.

In the firm belief that Conley's new demand to be brought to the face with Frank is a ploy to enable him to make a statement which will be taken as a confession, the defense is expected to give him a preliminary hearing in the morning, at which the witness stand by the State, the defense makes no secret of its intention of bringing down the curtain on an open court confession which will surprise them, say observers.

Believes Conley Won't Break. Solicitor Dorsey and the attorney for the prosecution, Frank, will probably make a confession on the stand. Mr. Hooper said Monday morning that he believed Conley would make an excellent witness probably the most valuable one the State would call. He did not believe that Conley would break down under the cross-examination of Attorney Hooper and Reuben Arnold, both of whom have a wide reputation for taking cross-examination to which they are subjected in the witness chair.

"I will say any thought that Conley will fall," said Mr. Hooper. "He has told me a clear, straight story. The details are fresh in his mind. He can not be confused, and the effort of course, will be to make him to be intimidated should there be any effort of the sort on the part of the cross-examiners, which I do not anticipate."
