LATEST NEWS

WASHINGTON, July 17.—The German demand on the United States for protection of foreigners in Mexico has been supplemented by similar demands from Great Britain, France and Italy. It was announced at the White House this morning.

The four nations have coupled this request with a detailed statement of conditions south of the Rio Grande as reported by their representatives.

The Government has reason to believe that dispatches from Ambassador Wilson have been tampered with and the President has decided to wait until he has personally seen the Ambassador before making any further move.

Dr. Ira Dalmater, charged with disorderly conduct when he visited the home of his wife at No. 64 Currier, was arrested last night and fined $107.75 Thursday afternoon in the Recorder's court. Mrs. Dalmater appeared as a witness against her husband.

The Police Commission of the City Council late Thursday afternoon ordered a rigid investigation of the charge of Mungin P. Smith, vice president and secretary of the Eagle Stamp Works, that he and B. J. Gleason, manager of the MILL Theater, had conspired to defraud the city.

BULGARIAN—ROUMANIA, July 17.—King Charles' Roumanian army to-day arrived within forty miles of the Bulgarian capital, Sofia, the Bulgarian capital.

DETROIT, MICH., July 17.—"I've been myself," President McCallister of the Boston Red Sox said today when he learned that the American League was in the city with the intention of learning the why and wherefore of the firing of the baseball.

MACON, July 17.—The Bibb County Law Enforcement League this afternoon inaugurated the campaign to close every saloon and every place where liquor is sold in the city by turning into a modern city by a "too severe and clear-cut" Recorder.

VERA CRUZ, July 17.—Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson, who arrived here today, is expected to be recalled as that would mean a severance of political relations between the United States and Mexico.

"I am leaving Mexico at the request of President Wilson to report on the situation in Mexico," he asserted, "I hope to be back in Mexico in three weeks."

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., July 17.—William M. L. Davidson, a traveling salesman, killed himself late today at a St. Louis hotel. He had himself through the heart. Davidson is said to be related to Mayor Carter M. Gable, son of Chicago.

New York Burglars Get $25,000 Loot
NEW YORK, July 17.—Four men in the jewelry manufacturing establishment of Roseberry & Daniel on the lower East side were blown open early today by robbers who secured $25,000.

One of the other safes contained $25,000 worth of jewelry, but the robbers were scared away.

WOODWARD SAYS LOWE WILL ADHERE

Accused Wilson is Only on Stand Friday—Barber Is Go on Acquaintance, She Asserts.

A clash between the attorneys in the Crawford case occurred Thursday morning when Burton Smith, Luther Z. Rosser, Colonel P. H. Brewer and Reuben Arnold faced J. R. James, attorney for their client, to retract his charge that they were "perpetrating a nefarious scheme to rob the rightful heirs of Joshua B. Crawford."

The clash came while Colonel Brewer was on the witness stand telling of the litigation in the fight for the $400,000 estate.

Reference was made to a previous statement by Attorney James that the attorneys on the other side of the case were attempting to perpetrate a "nefarious scheme to defraud."

"I demand that apology be made to this court for that statement," said Colonel Brewer, looking innocently toward Attorney James.

"Threats fly promiscuously," "I stand on the minutes of the hearing," replied James hotly.

Auditor James L. Anderson tried to restore order and Luther Rosser was called to the stand.

"His first statement was a threat to the attorneys on the opposite side. Looking toward Attorney James, he said:

"I am going to tell everything I know about this case. If any further reference is made to a 'nefarious scheme' (he leaned across the table to Attorney James) I will consider it a personal matter."

Burton Smith, who figured prominently in the case about a month ago by beating two of the heirs-at-law, and Reuben Arnold, who was Smith's attorney, were called to the stand.

Attorney James related to the minutes and the case proceeded quietly.

Attorney James obtained permission to introduce another "poison witness" during the hearing Thursday. He would not reveal the identity of his new witness, except to say that it was a physician who had made an examination of the contents of Crawford's stomach.

Expectation that Mrs. Crawford would go on the stand at Thursday's hearing in her own behalf was blasted by the lengthy cross-examination of Colonel Brewer.

The widow probably will go on the stand Friday, Mrs. Crawford said Thursday morning, but she would be unable to testify, her innocence of the senseless murder.

The most strenuous opposition of Solicitor General Hugh M. Dorsey was all that prevented the late Grand Jury from reopening its investigation of the Phagan mystery with a view of indicting the negro Jim Conley because known Thursday.

The four nations have coupled the request with a detailed statement of conditions south of the Rio Grande as reported by their representatives.

The Government has reason to believe that the dispatches from Ambassador Wilson have been tampered with and the President has decided to wait until he hears personally from the Ambassador before making any further move.

A clash between the attorneys in the Crawford will case occurred Thursday morning when Burton Smith, Luther Z. Rosser, Colonel P. H. Brewer and Reuben Arnold forced J. E. James, attorney for her late husband, to retract his charge that they were "perpetrating a nefarious scheme to rob the rightful heirs of Joshua B. Crawford."

At Belmont, the first race was won by Blake (McTaggart), 4. 2-5 out, second; Prince Rogers (Hart), 1-2 out, third. Time 1:32 1-4. Also ran, Sawbone.

Policians also scored in opening inning Conzelman and Wilson hurt initial game of series.
