BLACK TYPE

¶ The names appearing in BLACK TYPE in this directory represent the energy and enterprise of the city and it is a pleasure for the publishers of this directory to have the opportunity to make the public acquainted with them. Those in black type are the people who accomplish the wonders in business here and make Atlanta what it is. They recognize and support all the public necessities and things needful to improve and serve a CITY of Atlanta's magnificent possibilities. They are not the drones and sponges who never support anything, but seek rather to gain by others' hard work and money. When you patronize those in black type you patronize men and firms who will PATRONIZE YOU in the same broad manner that you patronize them.

Gentlemen:-

It gives me pleasure to say that the returns from advertising in the Atlanta City Directory have been exceedingly satisfactory. I have had a card in your book each year for a number of years past and have already contracted for space in 1914.

A good amount of business has been placed with me traceable directly to your publication and in addition to this I believe the advertisement well worth the money from a standpoint of general publicity.

Yours very truly,

BLACK TYPE

q The names appearing in BLACK TYPE in this directory represent the energy and enterprise of the city and it is a pleasure for the publishers of this directory to have the opportunity to make the public acquainted with them. Those in black type are the people who accomplish the wonder in business here and make Atlanta what it is. They recognize and support all the public necessities and things needful to improve and serve a CITY of Atlanta's magnificent possibilities. They are not the drones and sponges who never support anything, but seek rather to gain by others' hard work and money. When you patronize those in black type you patronize men and firms who will PATRONIZE YOU in the same broad manner that you patronize them.

Atlanta City Directory Co.,

Gentlemen:

To-day a gentleman connected with one of Atlanta's most prominent institutions said he had been wondering where he could get some multigraphing done, when he saw my advertisement in the City Directory, and so he brought it to me.

He was unable to give the time to reading proofs of the work, and when he called for it later, he said: "Why, there is not an error in it. The City Directory must be careful in the selection of its advertisers." Since then he has given me his work regularly.

With best wishes, I remain,

Sincerely,

(Miss) R. Pearl Spellman

We wish a renewal of our "Ad" in your forthcoming Directory. We have up to the present date found no better advertisement than this has given us. Just to-day we received a large order for "gold and white" China, which, like a number of other orders received, is directly attributable to this adv. and we feel it is money "well spent."

OBJECTIONABLE ADVERTISING

WE believe objectionable advertising to be that which in any manner, to any degree, perpetrates a fraud on the public, which is couched in deceptive or indecent language, which is viciously illustrated, which advertises harmful products, which is sponsored by an Advertiser who is not able or disposed to give his customer a square deal.

Advertising adversely affecting the health, morals, or pocket-book is objectionable.

WHY WE ARE AT WAR WITH DISHONEST ADVERTISING

BECAUSE we are engaged in an honorable calling and believe in the square deal—

Because we believe that every dishonest advertiser saps the effort of every honest one; whereas,

Every honest advertiser helps to make dishonest advertising possible.

The success of honest and dishonest advertising alike depends on one element—the confidence of the public in advertising—but, while honest advertisers are creating this confidence, dishonest advertisers are destroying it.

Dishonest advertising undermines confidence in all advertising and lessens the producing power of the honest advertiser's expenditure.

We publish only Honest and Unobjectionable Advertising.

Management

H. R. Cannon

Atlanta City Directory Co.,

Gentlemen:

In ordering the copies of the Atlanta Directory for the year, which are to be used in the Atlanta Post Office, and its numerous stations and branches, I am impressed with the fact that too much emphasis cannot be put upon the value of the latest Directory with its revised list of names in connection with Post Office work.

Thousands of letters are constantly received bearing erroneous addresses, or with the street address omitted altogether. Practically all this mail has to be handled by clerks whose duty it is to search the Directory for the proper addresses. This means a delay in the delivery of mail matter, and a great amount of clerical labor.

If patrons of the Post Office would take pains to consult current Directories, they would receive much better service, while the Post Office would be relieved of a great amount of labor which it is now obliged to perform.

Respectfully,

H. L. McKEE,

Postmaster.

Printing Lithography

WE printed this book. That, however, is not the reason for the appearance of this advertisement. Most any printing office, if it is big enough, can print a city directory. Besides, with the exception of a daily newspaper, no other work calls for such a stress on time, and this very haste for fear folks may move before its issue, effectually precludes first-class work.

The real reason for this advertisement is that on account of our exceptional mechanical facilities and the extraordinary ability of the specialists that make up our operating force, this Directory would be incomplete without specific reference to us, in the interest of those who may consult it in any matter involving the graphic arts of Printing, Lithography or any subsidiary industry.

 Gentlemen:

To-day a gentleman connected with one of Atlanta's most prominent institutions said he had been wondering where he could get some multigraphing done, when he saw my advertisement in the City Directory, and so he brought it to me.

He was unable to give the time to reading proofs of the work, and when he called for it later, he said: "Why, there is not an error in it. The City Directory must be careful in the selection of its advertisers." Since then he has given me his work regularly.

With best wishes, I remain,

Sincerely,

Gentlemen:-

It gives me pleasure to say that the returns from advertising in the Atlanta City Directory have been exceedingly satisfactory. I have had a card in your book each year for a number of years past and have already contracted for space in 1914.

A good amount of business has been placed with me traceable directly to your publication and in addition to this I believe the advertisement well worth the money from a standpoint of general publicity.

Dear Sirs:

My business is one that causes me to know almost every street in the city, and I have been stupid enough in the past to think that your book would be of no service to me. I have used your book for the past two years and find it to be worth many times its price in corroborating a customer's word about his address, when making an application and again, I have often found that I could save the time of a useless investigation by finding that the party did not live at the number mentioned. This fact alone should sell your book to every progressive loan and discount man in the city.

Yours truly,

ATLANTA, GEORGIA

Atlanta City Directory Co.,

Gentlemen:

In ordering the copies of the Atlanta Directory for the year, which are to be used in the Atlanta Post Office, and its numerous stations and branches, I am impressed with the fact that too much emphasis cannot be put upon the value of the latest Directory with its revised list of names in connection with Post Office work.

Thousands of letters are constantly received bearing erroneous addresses, or with the street address omitted altogether. Practically all this mail has to be handled by clerks whose duty it is to search the Directory for the proper addresses. This means a delay in the delivery of mail matter, and a great amount of clerical labor.

If patrons of the Post Office would take pains to consult current Directories, they would receive much better service, while the Post Office would be relieved of a great amount of labor which it is now obliged to perform.

Respectfully,

H. L. McKEE,

Postmaster.
